The Coldwell Banker Burnet Foundation Raises $7,500 for Bridging

EDINA, MN (November 10, 2011) – The Coldwell Banker Burnet Foundation donated $7,500 to Bridging. Funds were generated by sales associates who participated in the Foundation’s Charitable Golf Challenge and through the sale of raffle tickets.

Bridging’s mission is to provide families and individuals transitioning out of homelessness and poverty with a one-time gift of quality furniture and household goods to stabilize and improve lives while effectively using community resources.

“We are pleased to support this worthwhile organization and its vital mission,” said Robin Peterson, president of Coldwell Banker Burnet. ““Helping people turn around their lives and having a place to call home is our passion.”

“It’s an honor to partner with the Coldwell Banker Burnet Foundation,” said Sara Sternberger, executive director of Bridging. “We are appreciative of this generous donation.”

Coldwell Banker Burnet Foundation is the charitable arm of Coldwell Banker Burnet and a local chapter of the Realogy Charitable Foundation Inc., a 501 (c) 3 nonprofit organization. The Coldwell Banker Burnet Foundation's mission is to support housing-related needs of people at all stages of life in the communities they serve.
